

POLICE COURT CASES

J. W. Woten, an alleged attorney of this city, was fined $50 by Judge C. B. Diehl Saturday morning for battery committed upon the daughter of J. G. Weaver. The case has occupied a good deal of time in the police court for the past week, and has been one in which much interest was shown. Upon motion of Soren X. Christensen, attorney for Woten, a stay of execution was granted by the court until Tuesday.

In the Diehl, in passing sentence upon Woten, made a few remarks, saying that the case had a bad odor and that under ordinary circumstances his sentence would have been much more severe. Before passing sentence Judge Diehl overruled a motion made by the defense for arrest of judgment.

After preparing a number of different complaints charging third-degree burglary, the county attorney's office finally drew up a complaint which was successful in having Harry Simmons, who has been before the court several times, bound over to the district court. Bail was fixed at $300. Simmons's attorney heretofore has found some mistake in the complaints made against his client which delayed the court in taking action. Simmons is alleged to have stolen clothing from an East side resident's garage.

Dr. Fred Stauffer has removed his office from Templeton building to the Stauffer flats, 104 East South Temple.

New Incorporations

Articles of incorporation of the Tuttle & Stringham Harness company, to engage in a general harness and saddlery business at Manti, Sanpete county, were filed with the secretary of state Saturday. The capital stock is $3000, divided into 300 shares valued at $10 each. Luther Tuttle is president, W. G. Stringham secretary and Luther Tuttle, Jr., treasurer; and these, with Walter Stringham and Burton Tuttle, make up the board of directors.

The Western Powder company, to carry on a general wholesale and retail business with headquarters in Salt Lake City, incorporated with the county clerk, with a capital stock of $15,000, divided into 150 shares of $100 each, of which fifty shares are set aside as treasury stock. The incorporators are A. B. Gibson, E. O. Leatherwood, R. Zwicky, Frank Heginbotham and James F. Marshall, all of Salt Lake City. Leatherwood is president, Marshall vice president and Gibson secretary and treasurer, and they, with Zwicky, form the directorate.
